EMERGENCY RELIEF

No one knows when the next emergency will strike ... or where. But wherever it is—from India to Ethiopia to Honduras—your gifts will be there, too ... providing food, clothing, medicine and spiritual support.

MEDICAL CARE

He's giving his life to help others, but ...

Fr. Javier feeds hundreds of street children every day in Bogota, Colombia.

He needs your help, too ...

Father Javier, shown above, symbolizes compassion, friendship and hope for the many abandoned children he cares for in Bogota, Colombia. Thousands of little faces turn to him and other Salesian Missionaries each day for shelter, clothes, food, education, and most important for God's love.

Help Support A Missionary ...

A Missionary gives his entire life to help others. He works in countries under primitive conditions that would horrify most of us. His is no 9 to 5 job but a never-ending struggle to bring health care, education and human dignity to those less fortunate.

In order to help others, he needs help from you. With rising costs it now takes an average of $50 a month to support a Salesian Missionary in the field. Not a great sum—only a little more than a dollar and a half a day—but money that is badly needed if our Missionaries are to continue their work.

Your help will go a long way toward helping our Missionaries save lives and give thousands of poor children and their families the chance for a decent future.

Our Missionaries accomplish so much with so little at their means. Their efforts are helping to bring joy, faith and hope to thousands of underprivileged people.

The Salesians were founded over a hundred years ago by Don Bosco, who devoted his life to the youth of the world. There are now over 34,000 Fathers, Brothers and Sisters who work in more than 130 countries around the world. In missions, schools and orphanages, they fight the battle against sickness, ignorance and hunger.

Believing that education is the key to help people to help themselves, we have established both trade schools and agricultural schools in many developing countries.

Won't You Please Help?

Don Bosco once said: "To help poor children I have only my goodwill; without you, my benefactors, I could do nothing."

Without you, our Missionaries can do nothing.

You can help by contributing to their support. Even if you can't support a Missionary by yourself, your contribution can go a long way. For instance, only $25 would support him for 2 weeks, $10 would support him for several days.

By sharing your blessings, you will have the satisfaction of knowing you are part of our Salesian family and that you share in the accomplishments and rewards of our endeavors.
