

Did you know...

If you do not make a will, your estate will be distributed according to the laws of your state and not according to your wishes. Your loved ones may not receive what you want them to receive and your favorite charities will not receive anything.

Your will spells out all of your wishes clearly. It is a powerful document which speaks for you. It will protect your family and enable you to continue to support the charities of your choice so that good works can live on in your name.

To make sure that it conforms to the laws of your state, have your will drawn up by your lawyer. It is surprisingly inexpensive and you will be able to appoint a relative or friend in whom you have complete confidence as the executor of your property.

Most of all, you will have peace of mind knowing that your wishes will be carried out.

Remember Christ's needy in your will...

The Good Lord gave us everything we have. Therefore, nothing could be more fitting than to remember Him in our wills.

When you include Salesian Missions in your will, you help His work in many lands... His children who need assistance... and you bring His love and His care to many people who desperately need it.

Here is a form of bequest to use when preparing your will: "I give and bequeath to Salesian Missions, Inc., a charitable and religious Society incorporated under the laws of the State of New York, with headquarters at 2 Lefevre Lane, New Rochelle, New York 10801, the sum of $_____ to be used at the discretion of the Mission Director for works of charity in mission lands."

Our legal title is Salesian Missions, Inc. Your bequest, legacy or gift is tax exempt.

There are over 34,000 Salesian Fathers, Brothers and Sisters serving in more than 120 countries in Orphanages, Trade Schools, Agricultural Schools, Youth Clubs, Hospitals and Medical Dispensaries. You can help this effort by remembering Salesian Missions in your will.

When you remember Salesian Missions in your will, you will have the comfort and joy of knowing that your charity will live on to help give new life and hope to poor children around the world.
