St. John Bosco was born in poverty. Yet with no funds and despite tremendous opposition he was ordained a priest, established schools and youth centers and a society that has grown and spread from continent to continent. Today his Salesian Family – more than 34,000 strong – continue his work in over 130 countries.

St. John Bosco counted on friends and strangers alike to help finance his work. He had no funds and neither do many of our young seminarians.

Won't you be a friend of the Salesians and help a seminarian?

SEMINARIAN SUPPORT PROGRAM

"A Journey to the Priesthood"

"... they have testified to Your love before the church. Please help them in a way worthy of God to continue their journey."

3 John 1:6

Christ has given the gift of a vocation to many young men in the missions.

We Salesians have been blessed with candidates for the priesthood who have answered Christ's call.

At present we are fortunate to have over 2,800 candidates for the priesthood in our mission seminaries.

These are local vocations which we have been cultivating for years in order to establish the Church firmly in the many countries where we work.

These young men are willing to devote themselves to the years of study it takes to become a Salesian... willing to give of themselves for the salvation and betterment of others... willing to undertake the grueling responsibilities of becoming a mission priest to the poorest of the poor.

They have the will, but not the way. The majority do not have the means to finance their priestly education. Today, it costs over $5,000 a year to educate a seminarian in his theological studies.

But there is a way that you and other good people can help. Read on to see how...

JOIN THE SEMINARIAN SUPPORT PROGRAM

By joining our Seminarian Support Program you can help assist young men on their journey to the priesthood.

You can choose to send whatever you would like. As little as $10 or $15 a month can help pay for the education of a worthy young man.

Your contributions will help continue the work of St. John Bosco and keep his message of faith, hope and love alive in the world today.

By lending a helping hand to a future priest, you will have the satisfaction of knowing there is a young man who has reached God's Altar with your help and you will be sharing in all the joys and blessings of his apostolic work.

The Salesians were founded by St. John Bosco especially to work with underprivileged youngsters. Today, we help young people throughout the world in academic and technical schools, youth clubs, summer camps, retreat houses, guidance centers and orphanages.

Our trade schools are especially important in giving poor youngsters an opportunity to break the cycle of poverty. Education is the key to success.

Each child helped by the Salesians to learn a trade can be self-supporting. In short, we help them to help themselves.

Please help us continue this life-saving work by supporting a seminarian on his journey to the priesthood. Join the Seminarian Support Program today and help make the world a better place.
